HISTORY OF ZION CEMETERY

Zion Cemetery is located in the Northeast Quarter of Section 20, Township 11, Range 4. This is on Millers Station Road (County Road 4) one mile south of the junction with Annapolis Road (State Road 646).

This tract contains over two acres and holds the bodies of many German pioneers.

Between 1802 and 1805, several German families settled a few miles east of Germano, which had been called Jefferson. In 1805, Pastor Johannes Stauch, who was a Lutheran minister, organized these families into a Union Lutheran and Reformed Church.

A log church was built on land donated by Christophel Schaber and was generally called "Schaber's". Christophel Schaber, George Helwig, Jacob Schuss, and others built the church. The Schaber's heirs conveyed the church's ground to the trustees of Zion's Lutheran and German Reformed Church on September 19, 1838. When the Reformed section withdrew and went to Germano, the Lutherans built and dedicated a new frame church on the old site in 1835. It was abandoned in 1870 to join the Germano congregation. A small brick building replaced it in 1886, which may have been used for burial purposes.

The first minister was Johannes Stauch from 1805-1812.

Timothy R. Beiber, as a part of his Boy Scout Eagle Project for Boy Scout Troop #269 located in Cadiz, OH, has provided this information on June, 2008.
